

Family Development Specialist Certification Training

FDS Registration and Schedule

Agencies and individuals interested in registering for the NRC Family Development Specialist Certification program must complete and submit this following form. Consult the current FDS training schedule located on the National Resource Center's website for the date and time of the training session (<https://nrcfcp.uiowa.edu/training-and-technical-assistance/training-schedules-and-registration>). Sessions are limited to 25 participants; registrations are on a first-come, first-served basis. Detailed information about the training will be sent to you in your confirmation-of-registration letter which will be emailed to you. If you represent an agency and would like to negotiate a site-specific program, please contact Abigail Heaton, Director of Training, for more information, abigail-heaton@uiowa.edu.

Fees for Family Development Specialist Certification

$1,000 per participant for four-day course. Payment must be made by check or purchase order. Registration includes four-day training program conducted by national trainers, participant training manual, consultation during training, and national certification document and pin. For additional information, contact Abigail Heaton at abigail-heaton@uiowa.edu or Trish Peyton at trish-peyton@uiowa.edu.
